

Endorsements for Lothar Determann's Field Guide to Data Privacy Law: International Corporate Compliance (Sixth Edition)

“Practical, well-organized, reliable, and concise while remaining admirably comprehensive, Determann’s Field Guide to Data Privacy Law has earned its place as the standard reference in the field. With the timely addition of AI, cybersecurity, and children's privacy regulations to the sixth edition, the Guide has become more valuable than ever. Every international business professional needs Determann’s Field Guide on his or her desk.”

– Aaron Fellmeth, Professor of Law, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, Arizona State University, USA

Acclaim for previous editions:

“Lothar Determann is Silicon Valley’s go-to data privacy expert. Determann’s Field Guide to Data Privacy Law is a practical and accessible guide for non-experts. I use it any time I encounter a new data privacy issue.”

– Josh Faddis, Vice President, General Counsel, Veeva Systems Inc., USA

“Grounded firmly in reality and practicality, Determann’s...Field Guide delivers a valuable “map and compass” to practitioners seeking to navigate data protection compliance at their own pace. While spanning multiple jurisdictions, the Guide keeps the practitioner on course by drawing on the most up-to-date and leading standards governing key aspects of data protection and security. Nobody that follows this Guide should end up lost.”

– Helen Dixon, former Commissioner for Data Protection, Data Protection Commission, Ireland

“Determann’s guide is a great start in educating organizations on how to become compliant even where their jurisdiction may not be, or may not provide sufficient protection.”

– Dominique Chanda Kabwenga and Lori Baker, DIFC Authority, Dubai UAE

“Lothar Determann is a thought leader on the cutting edge of data privacy law. I highly recommend Determann's Field Guide - it is an essential resource that should be on every privacy lawyer's desk.”

– Ian Ballon, Greenberg Traurig LLP, US

“This new edition of Professor Lothar Determann's book is an invaluable contribution to understanding all the recent transformations in the regulations on personal data protection at an international level. It is a work that, in addition to its relevance for the theoretical discussions of the aspects it deals with, becomes a practical tool for those who must advise both the public and private sectors on issues related to the protection of personal data.”

– Eduardo Bertoni, Regional Office for South America of the Inter-American Institute of Human Rights, Uruguay, NYU Law in Buenos Aires, and formerly Argentine Data Protection Authority, Argentina
