

Representative Legal Matters

Radosław Nożykowski

- Advised a multinational media company on a data breach case, focusing on cybersecurity threats.
- Advised an international defence company on Polish law compliance as well as on Polish defense sector contracting.
- Represented a leading global medical devices producer in criminal proceedings initiated in Poland against the company and its senior employees on bribery charges.
- Advised an European aviation equipment producer on the steps required to obtain a license to launch production in Poland as well as to procure licenses for exporting military grade equipment within and outside the EU.
- Represented a multinational corporation before the Polish DPA in connection with alleged client non-compliance in the context of a data breach case.
- Advised major tech companies on the use of cryptography and the transfer of encrypted data.
- Advised a leading American healthcare company on sensitive data processing in a medical context for a high-tech medical solution. The firm's role was to provide practical guidance in a multinational set up for the collection and processing of highly sensitive information in the light of the particularities and demands of Polish data protection law.
- Advised a Polish producer of dual-use equipment on the transfer of military grade ship engines outside the EU.
- Representing a client in the negotiation of the integration work for electric car construction, covering both contractual and regulatory aspects.
- Advised a US-based aviation and defence contractor on various compliance matters, including anti-bribery issues.
- Advised a global corporation on responding to unfounded allegations made publicly regarding the bribing of public officials in connection with an IT tender procedure. This entailed working closely with the country head and the communications and internal investigations teams to assess the validity of the allegations and minimize the damage caused by the letter in which the allegations were made.
- Advised a global corporation on employer duties regarding terrorism threats and employee safety both locally and when sending employees abroad. The matter involved physical threats made against our client by an individual in Poland.

Baker McKenzie.

- Advised an American multinational corporation specializing in Internet-related services and products on the first "the right to be forgotten" case in Poland.
- Advised international financial institution on combatting the effects of a cybersecurity breach, from both a privacy and criminal law perspective.
- Representing a client in a telecommunications dispute on the alleged breach by the client of regulatory duties, resulting in the successful reversal of the original decision.